

Tim Coleman was born and raised outside Chicago, Illinois and currently resides in Vienna, Austria, where he is attending Webster University for a Master's in Psychology with plans to ultimately work for Amateur or Professional organizations as a team therapist.

Prior to moving to Europe Tim was immersed in the hockey landscape specifically in the United States and Western Canada.

From 2012 to 2017 he worked as a Player Agent, Family Advisor, and the Director of Hockey Department and Player Development at MCA Sports and Entertainment. During this period, he represented and advised a roster of 60+ talented players ranging from U15 to Professional

In addition to his agency experience, Tim has held various scouting roles that further honed his skills in talent identification and evaluation.

He served as the Head Scout for the Amateur Hockey Report, Regional Scout for the Salmon Arm Silverbacks BCHL, the Minnesota Wilderness of the NAHL, and the Omaha AAA U16 and U18 team.

His expertise includes but is not limited to talent identification, interpersonal communication, negotiation, and providing introductions to, or connecting players with coaches, agents and general managers. He is best known for his in-depth scouting reports, relentless work ethic, and a strong understanding of the hockey landscape, including its economic and political dimensions.

Tim plans to settle down in Europe but has the abilities, tools and connections necessary to be an asset for our organization.

Tim's passions outside of hockey include spending time with his family, especially his five nephews and one niece ages 3 to 17, Psychology and mental health, World Travel, and Fly-fishing.